

Single Feasible Source Purchase

Title: Family to Family Program

Description: Provide the Family to Family program through trained certified family members to caregivers of individuals with severe mental illness.

Family to Family is a proprietary program owned by the National Alliance on Mental Illness. The National Alliance on Mental Illness has granted sole rights to provide the Family to Family program in the State of Missouri to NAMI of Missouri. Family to Family is a unique program for caregivers of individuals with severe mental illnesses. The Family to Family program is the only program of its nature designated with an exemplary practice status by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration. Therefore, NAMI of Missouri is considered the single feasible source.
