Title: Missouri ProStart School-to-Career Program Coordinator

Description: The Missouri Restaurant Association shall house/host the Missouri ProStart School-to-Career Program Coordinator position for the purposes of coordinating and managing the activities of the ProStart Program in Missouri's secondary and postsecondary culinary/food service/hospitality program. The Missouri ProStart School-to-Career Program Coordinator will merge the recruitment and training interests of the hospitality industry in Missouri with the education, career and placement priorities of the education system, with the goal of attracting, training, and retaining, a competent workforce in the hospitality industry.

The National Restaurant Association is the sole sponsor of the ProStart Program on both state and national levels, and is mandated to work with the department of education in each state to further the implementation of the program nationwide. The National Restaurant Association requires a partnership be formed between the National Restaurant Association's state affiliate (Missouri Restaurant Association) and the state Department of Education.
