

Single Feasible Source Purchase

Title: Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP)

Description: Provide commodity food packages to low-income pregnant women, postpartum women, breastfeeding women, infants, children up to age 6, and elderly persons age 60 and over, to enhance nutrition for vulnerable Missourians. Manage the CSFP and funds accountably. Manage the commodity supplemental foods received effectively and efficiently to avoid spoilage and waste.

There are a total of six food banks in the state of Missouri, each with a specific service area. There is no overlap in service area. They are all non-profit organizations and per Federal regulations only non-profit organizations may operate the Commodity Supplemental Food Program. The food banks have the unique capacity to warehouse and handle large quantities of food in compliance with food industry standards and the requirements of the federal donated food programs.
