Department Description

Missouri National Guard

The Missouri National Guard was established as a state department pursuant to Article IV, Section 54, of the Missouri Constitution. The Director of the National Guard is the Adjutant General. The Adjutant General shall provide for the state militia, uphold the Constitution of the United States, uphold the Constitution of Missouri, protect the constitutional rights and civil liberties of Missourians, and provide other defense and security mechanisms as may be required. The National Guard shall administer the militia and programs of the state relating to military forces. The militia of the state of Missouri, which includes the Adjutant General and his office, constitutes the military division of the executive department of the state government, under the direct control of the Governor.

Program is found in the following core budget(s): AG Administration

1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

Obtain and provide resources to support the Office of the Adjutant General/Missouri National Guard to achieve a "Culture of Readiness", with intergrity, professionalism and efficiency.

1b. What does this program do?

- Supports the Office of the Adjutant General; the headquarters of the Missouri National Guard Training Site, a 350 acre complex comprised of 500,000 sq feet of buildings.
- Supports the military strength, of nearly 12,000 Soldiers and Airmen throughout the state, by providing administrative support for the 59 readiness centers/armories located throughout the State.
- Provides state funding necessary to support military operations of the Adjutant General, Missouri National Guard Museum, State Emergency Management Agency (SEMA), and Missouri Intelligence Analysis Center (MIAC).
- Funding ensures that federal and state standards for training, readiness, and strength are maintained to enable the Guard to perform its state and federal missions.
- The Adjutant General has the overall responsibility for both the Army and Air National Guard, Federal and State funds and property.
- The true strength of the National Guard is the community based units "Always ready, always there" when emergencies occur.
- Unity of command strengthens hometown units. Headquarters not only coordinates efforts but is the conduit that brings commands together.

The State Mission: is to provide trained and disciplined forces for domestic emergencies or as otherwise required by state law under the authority of the governor. Our role has expanded since 9/11, with Guard members continually serving around the world and around our country helping during floods, tornadoes, civil disturbances, winter storms, hurricane responses, and most recently, the COVID-19 pandemic; that stateside mission is still a major part of what we do.

The Federal Mission: is to maintain properly trained and equipped units for prompt mobilization for war, national emergency, or as otherwise directed by the president. Missouri National Guard members must always be ready for any mission from the president, including peacekeeping missions and overseas contingency operations.

The Office of the Adjutant General and the Missouri National Guard are organized under the State Constitution in accordance with directives promulgated by the federal military department, pursuant to RSMo 41.010. Section 46 of Article III of the Missouri Constitution established the responsibility of the legislature to maintain an adequate militia. National Guard Regulation (NGR) 420-10 defines the responsibilities, organization, functions, and personnel for State Construction and Facilities Management Offices. The regulation includes guidance for establishing facility maintenance and repair standards and policies for planning and executing facilities projects. The relationship between the National Guard Bureau (NGB) and the State Military Department is governed by the fact that all Army National Guard (ARNG) facilities are owned by, leased for, or licensed to the States. As a result the States, and not the Federal government, operate and maintain all ARNG facilities.

6. Are there federal matching requirements? If yes, please explain.

No federal matching requirements

7. Is this a federally mandated program? If yes, please explain.

NGR 420-10 defines the basis of operation for all Army National Guard real estate. States agree to maintain facilities to "required minimum standards" under the Master Cooperative Agreement.

1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

Supports communities through emergency response, aerospace education and youth cadet programs

1b. What does this program do?

*Office of Air Search and Rescue (OASR), federally recognized as the Civil Air Patrol (CAP), is America's premier public service organization for carrying out emergency services and disaster relief missions nationwide. As the auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force, CAP's vigilant citizen volunteers are there to search for and find the lost, provide comfort in times of disaster, and work to keep the homeland safe. Its members selflessly devote their time, energy, and expertise toward the well-being of their communities, while also promoting aviation and related fields through aerospace education and helping shape future leaders through CAP's cadet program.

*Provides aviation education and training.

*Encourages and fosters civil aviation in local communities through orientation rides for CAP cadets, ROTC and MO teachers.

*Provides an organization of private citizens with adequate vehicles, communications, training, and facilities to assist in meeting local and national emergencies.

*Assists the Department of the Air Force in fulfilling its noncombat programs and missions.

*Assists local and state agencies with disaster relief and search and rescue missions using aircraft, small unmanned aircraft systems and ground teams to include annual MO DNR Minute Man II Silo surveys; can immediately activate aircrew and ground teams for missing aircraft and persons searches.

*Provides aerospace education outreach in local communities through science, technology, engineering, and math activities for cadets and schools.

*Works side-by-side with MO National Guard, State Emergency Management Agency, and other agencies in exercises and operations.

*Aerial transportation of personnel, equipment, search dog teams, blood and organs, vaccines, VIPs, law enforcement, etc.

*Airborne reconnaissance of critical infrastructure, roads, bridges, dams, suspicious activity, damage from natural disasters, etc.

*Maintains and operates large communications network of Very High Frequency (VHF) and High Frequency (HF) base and mobile radios, ground to air communications and several repeater stations located throughout the state.
