October 1, 2015

Dear Governor Nixon,

Enclosed is the 35th annual budget request of the Missouri State Public Defender System (MSPD). The sole mission of MSPD is to fulfill government's obligation to make sure that poor Missourians who are charged with a criminal offense receive competent legal representation. This mission cannot be accomplished with current resources and, as a result, the state is regularly violating the rights of poor persons. This reality was most recently pointed out by the Civil Rights Division of the U.S. Department of Justice in its report on juvenile representation in St. Louis County.

To objectively state our existing resource needs to the state, MSPD became the first public defender system in the country to require its attorneys to track their time in five-minute increments. This data was compiled and used by RubinBrown, a nationally recognized accounting firm, to assess how much time MSPD attorneys were actually spending on a particular task in a particular case compared to how much time should be spent on such tasks. Across the board, RubinBrown's objective analysis revealed that for every single task, in every single case type, MSPD was not spending the appropriate resources it needed to provide competent counsel. Using RubinBrown's standards, the conclusion is that MSPD needs 269 additional attorneys and 90 support staff to address its current caseload. This budget request mirrors that finding. In addition, this proposal seeks funding so that all conflict cases (where there are two or more defendants with opposing interests) are contracted out to private counsel so that attorneys can leverage existing economies of scale that come with being assigned to a single court in a single circuit. Lastly, this request seeks funding to improve MSPD's cybersecurity and electronic capabilities so that, among other things, the download of a single video from a police body camera does not freeze the entire system.

While there are seemingly countless entities seeking public dollars each budget cycle, it is important to recognize that providing competent defense counsel to indigents is a constitutional obligation imposed on the state. We look forward to working with you through the coming budget session to address both of these worthwhile goals.

Sincerely,

Michael Barrett
Director, Missouri State Public Defender

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Department: Office of the State Public Defender	HB Section(s): HB 12.400
Program Name: Public Defender

1. What does this program do?

The Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution provides that, “In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to . . . have the assistance of counsel for his defence.” If an individual cannot afford to hire an attorney, the state must provide one for him in order for the prosecution to proceed. The Missouri State Public Defender System was created to meet this obligation of the State of Missouri. Its lawyers provide criminal defense representation to indigent defendants in all of Missouri’s criminal trial and appellate courts, as well as in a variety of quasi-criminal matters which carry a right to counsel, such as juvenile delinquency cases, sexually violent predator commitment cases, petitions for release from the Department of Mental Health, probation revocations and post-conviction motions to vacate criminal convictions.

2. What is the authorization for this program, i.e., federal or state statute, etc.? (Include the federal program number, if applicable.)

Chapter 600 R.S. Mo, which was enacted to comply with the state’s obligations under the U.S. Constitution and Missouri Constitutions:
*In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to . . . have the assistance of counsel for his defence.
Amend VI, U.S. Constitution*

*In order to assert our rights, acknowledge our duties, and proclaim the principles on which our government is founded, we declare: . . .
That in criminal prosecutions the accused shall have the right to appear and defend in person and by counsel.
Article I, Section 18(a), Missouri Constitution.*

3. Are there federal matching requirements? If yes, please explain.

No

HB Section(s): HB 12.400

4. Is this a federally mandated program? If yes, please explain.

Yes. The provision of counsel to indigent defendants facing prosecution and the potential loss of their liberty is federally mandated under the United States Constitution:

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to . . . have the assistance of counsel for his defence.” Amend VI, U.S. Constitution Bill of Rights

5. Provide actual expenditures for the prior three fiscal years and planned expenditures for the current fiscal year.

6. What are the sources of the "Other " funds?

Legal Defense and Defender Fund - Collections from Clients

7a. Provide an effectiveness measure.

There are three primary measures of effectiveness applicable to the Missouri State Public Defender System:

(1) Case Law: Through cases ruled upon by the United States Supreme Court, the Missouri Supreme Court and Courts of Appeal, specific standards of what does or does not constitute effective assistance of counsel in the representation of a criminal defendant have evolved. Where an attorney is found by the court to have failed to meet those standards, any conviction of the defendant must be set aside.

(2) Missouri Rules of Professional Responsibility are established by the Missouri Supreme Court and applicable to every attorney licensed to practice law within the State of Missouri. The Rules set out what is expected from a competent, professional attorney and are enforced by the Missouri Supreme Court through its Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel. Failure to comply with these rules can result in actions being taken against the attorney's license, ranging from a formal reprimand up to and including permanent disbarment from the right to practice law within the state.

(3) MSPD Guidelines for Representation adopted by the Missouri State Public Defender Commission, which set out the Commission's expectations of its attorneys in order to meet the above standards for effective representation of clients served by Missouri Public Defenders.

Unfortunately, the Missouri State Public Defender System is not currently able to meet many of these standards because it is staffed to handle only a percentage of the total caseload assigned to it this last year. The overload has forced lawyers and investigators alike to cut corners, skip steps, and make on-the-fly triage decisions in order to keep up with the deluge of cases coming in the door. As a result, effectiveness in many of these cases is seriously compromised.

American Bar Association Ethical Advisory Opinion re Public Defender Caseloads: In 2006, the American Bar Association issued an ethical advisory opinion warning against ethical violations caused by excessive defender caseloads and highlighting the fact that public defenders are not exempt from the professional obligation of all attorneys not to take on more cases than they can effectively handle. That opinion cited national caseload standards, as a base which should not be exceeded, but warned that other factors must also be taken into consideration, such as availability (or lack of) support staff to assist the attorneys, time taken away from case preparation by other non-case-related duties, such as travel, training, management, etc., and the specifics of local practice that could impact the amount of time needed for handling particular case types. See, ABA Formal Opinion 06-441: Ethical Obligations of Lawyers who Represent Indigent Criminal Defendants When Excessive Caseload Interfere with Competent and Diligent Representation, May 13, 2006.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Department: Office of the State Public Defender

HB Section(s): HB 12.400

Program Name: Public Defender

Over the last ten years, the issue of Missouri Public Defender’s workload has been the subject of five different studies: one by a Missouri Bar Task Force, two by The Spangenberg Group, an independent consultant, another by a Senate Interim Committee, and the most recent by the American Bar Association titled The Missouri Project. Each of these investigations reached the same conclusion: Missouri’s public defenders have too many cases and not enough lawyers or support staff to fulfill the state’s constitutional obligations.

The most recent ABA study, conducted and overseen by RubinBrown of St. Louis, one of the nation’s top accounting and business analytics firms, was designed to not only identify excessive work overloads – which it did -- but also to establish reliable case weights to determine what staffing levels are needed to match the existing workload (i.e., the average number of hours a competent attorney could expect to spend on a particular case type to provide competent representation).

When these case weights are applied to MSPD’s caseload, the number of staff MSPD would need to meet its existing caseload is 269.50 additional attorneys (see case weight metrics below). 258 attorneys are requested in the Constitutionally Mandated Representation decision item. 11.50 attorneys are requested in the Juvenile Advocacy decision item. This proposal further seeks funding that would allow MSPD to assign all Trial Division conflict cases to private attorneys, which remains the single most efficient way to immediately impact case overload.

ABA/RubinBrown Workload Study
Non-Capital Homicide	106.6
A/B Felony Offense	47.6
C/D Felony Offense	25.0
Sex Offense - Felony	63.8
Misdemeanor	11.7
Juvenile	19.5
Appeals/PCR	96.5
Probation Violation	9.8

The budget request also includes the addition of:

- Two Youth Advocacy Units, one in Kansas City and one in St. Louis, to specialize in the representation of juveniles (11.50 attorneys);
- A comprehensive compensation structure for Attorney staff; and
- Funding for improvements to MSPD's Information Technology systems, including increasing the size of MSPD's internet, intranet pipes (WAN), improving mobility, and providing better cybersecurity.

Each of these constitutes a measured, but significant step forward on the road toward fulfilling the state's constitutionally mandated obligations.

7b. Provide an efficiency measure.

The Missouri State Public Defender System's 369.50 Trial and Appellate lawyers opened 69,726 cases last year, appearing in every courthouse in every county across the state, at an average cost to the state's taxpayers of just $373.43 per case. This astonishingly low cost of indigent defense in Missouri – among the lowest in the nation -- is not a cause for celebration. It comes at the cost of justice, the result of widespread failure to provide indigent defendants the effective assistance of counsel that the U.S. Constitution's Bill of Rights guarantees them. There is a limit to the 'Do More With Less' mantra within the arena of criminal justice, and Missouri passed it sometime ago.

Every Missouri Public Defender attorney, investigator and mitigation specialist now tracks their time in five-minute increments by task and case type so that it can be seen exactly what is – and what is NOT – getting done on the cases assigned to MSPD.

7c. Provide the number of clients/individuals served, if applicable

In FY2015, MSPD provided representation in 73,598 new cases. The Public Defender Commission sets the indigency guidelines that are used to determine who is eligible for public defender services. Currently, those guidelines match the Federal Poverty Guidelines. Strictly applied, that would mean an individual making only $12,000 a year would not qualify for a public defender. According to recent reports, Missouri ranks 50th out of 50 states in income eligibility standards for public defender services, leaving a wide gap of ineligible defendants who in reality still lack the means to retain private counsel in the market. The guidelines, however, do allow for the taking into consideration of all of the defendant's particular circumstances affecting his/her ability to hire counsel, so things such as the seriousness of the charge may impact that decision. Defendants have the right to appeal MSPD's denial of their application to the court for an independent review of their eligibility. If the court finds they are unable to afford private counsel, the court can overrule the public defender denial.

The table on the following page shows a drop in new misdemeanors and probation violation cases for FY13, FY14 and FY15 from previous years. This is the direct result of judicial attempts to address public defender case overload. In several areas around the state, defendants facing only misdemeanor charges are diverted from or wait-listed for public defender services. Some courts wind up appointing private counsel to take on those cases without pay. Others withhold appointment of counsel until it is clear that the defendant either seeks a trial or the prosecutor is seeking jail time. As a result, some of those defendants wind up pleading guilty and being placed on probation for charges that carry a multitude of collateral consequences, including the risk of jail time if their probation is ever revoked, without ever having consulted with counsel. At this point, no one is tracking the number of cases diverted from the public defender system or to which private counsel is appointed to relieve public defender overload, so those numbers are not reflected in this budget request.

2. CORE DESCRIPTION

The Missouri State Public Defender System [MSPD] is a statewide system, providing legal representation to indigent defendants accused of state crimes in Missouri's trial, appellate, and supreme courts. It is an independent department of state government, located within, but not supervised by, the Judicial Branch. It is governed by a seven-member Public Defender Commission, appointed by the governor.

This decision item includes funding for public defenders and their support staff throughout the state and central administrative staff.

3. PROGRAM LISTING (list programs included in this core funding)

The Missouri State Public Defender has only one program: providing constitutionally required criminal defense representation to Missourians facing the loss of liberty in state misdemeanor and felony prosecutions, as well as in appellate and post-conviction representation matters in which the state has created a right to counsel.

FLEXIBILITY REQUEST FORM

BUDGET UNIT NUMBER: 1151000	DEPARTMENT: Office of the State Public Defender
BUDGET UNIT NAME: Office of the State Public Defender
HOUSE BILL SECTION: 12.400	DIVISION: Legal Services

1. Provide the amount by fund of personal service flexibility and the amount by fund of expense and equipment flexibility you are requesting in dollar and percentage terms and explain why the flexibility is needed. If flexibility is being requested among divisions, provide the amount by fund of flexibility you are requesting in dollar and percentage terms and explain why the flexibility is needed.

DEPARTMENT REQUEST

As in previous years, the Office of the State Public Defender is requesting full flexibility in our legal services appropriations. (Appropriations 0911, 0912 and 8727). Due to the turnover of attorney positions, the number of conflicts and the overload of cases, it is frequently necessary to transfer cases from state employees (Appropriation 0911) to private counsel who can be compensated from appropriation 0912 or 8727.

It is also necessary to transfer vacancy savings dollars from the Personal Service Appropriation to the Expense and Equipment Appropriation to cover appropriation shortfalls in case litigation expenses and increasing office expenses such as travel, postage, equipment maintenance and network charges.

2. Estimate how much flexibility will be used for the budget year. How much flexibility was used in the Prior Year Budget and the Current Year Budget? Please specify the amount.

PRIOR YEAR ACTUAL AMOUNT OF FLEXIBILITY USED	CURRENT YEAR ESTIMATED AMOUNT OF FLEXIBILITY THAT WILL BE USED	BUDGET REQUEST ESTIMATED AMOUNT OF FLEXIBILITY THAT WILL BE USED
$774,057	$850,000	$1,000,000

3. Please explain how flexibility was used in the prior and/or current years.

PRIOR YEAR EXPLAIN ACTUAL USE	CURRENT YEAR EXPLAIN PLANNED USE
$774,057 was transferred from Personal Service (0911) to E&E (0912) to cover case overload contracts, a shortage in litigation costs, general office operating costs and the one time purchase of equipment.	Flexibility will be utilized to best meet the caseload demands of the State Public Defender System. Dollars from Personal Service could be used to meet the cost of operating the local offices or to contract out cases to the private bar as the need arises or to pay for necessary litigation expenses.

As stated in the program description, the issue of Missouri Public Defender's workload has been the subject of many different studies. Through budget requests, the Missouri State Public Defender (MSPD) has warned that the rights of poor Missourians are being violated throughout the state because MSPD's resources are too few and the caseloads too high. These claims were confirmed for both juveniles and adults.

DI# 1151001

In the Spring of 2013, the National Juvenile Defender Center (NJDC) released a report that declared Missouri’s indigent defense system to be “in crisis” after having “endured two decades of crushing caseloads and inadequate resources to provide its mandated services.” A year later, following yet another failed attempt to acquire more resources, the American Bar Association (ABA) released the results of a commissioned report using a nationally renowned accounting firm, RubinBrown, which assessed MSPD’s workload data in order to draw unbiased conclusions.

To facilitate this review, MSPD became the first public defender system in the country to require its attorneys to track time in five minute increments. Applying the Delphi methodology, a proven business-analysis model, the ABA Report, "The Missouri Project", found that MSPD did not have nearly enough resources to meet its obligations and that a significant number of additional attorneys were needed. When the case weights are applied to MSPD's caseload, the number of attorney staff MSPD would need to meet its existing caseload is 269.50. Of this need, 258 are requested in the Constitutionally Mandated Representation decision item. 11.50 attorneys are requested in the following Juvenile Advocacy decision item. This decision also includes funding that would allow MSPD to assign all Trial Division conflict cases to private attorneys, which is the single most efficient way to immediately impact case overload.

4. DESCRIBE THE DETAILED ASSUMPTIONS USED TO DERIVE THE SPECIFIC REQUESTED AMOUNT. (How did you determine that the requested number of FTE were appropriate? From what source or standard did you derive the requested levels of funding? Were alternatives such as outsourcing or automation considered? If based on new legislation, does request tie to TAFP fiscal note? If not, explain why. Detail which portions of the request are one-times and how those amounts were calculated.)

This decision item assumes that:

1. All Trial Division conflict cases are contracted out to the private bar; (PART A)
2. Current contract fee amounts to private counsel remain flat;
3. Caseload, and the percentage of cases that have conflicts, remain relatively flat; and
4. The increase in the number of attorneys and support staff are also funded. (PARTB)

Caseload Relief - Constitutionally Mandated Representation Contracting All Trial Division Conflict Cases (PART A):

Currently, when a case involves multiple defendants, there is always the risk that one will point a finger at the other. Therefore, the local defender office can only represent one co-defendant and any other co-defendants must be represented elsewhere, either by another defender office or by private counsel on a contract for representation. Historically, MSPD has sent the first co-defendant to another defender office and contracted out additional co-defendants to private counsel. However, this in-house handling of trial division conflict cases is not a cost-effective approach because it pulls lawyers out of their primary jurisdictions and requires them to drive significant distances to appear in court, conduct investigations, witness interviews and depositions, visit their clients in jail, all in a distant county. It is not uncommon for each trip to take a day of the attorney's time to deal with one or two cases. Instead, economies of scale suggest it is more cost-effective and efficient to contract all trial level conflict cases to local attorneys in the private bar and allow the defender offices to concentrate on effectively representing the cases that arise within the counties they are designated to serve.

At present, MSPD uses the fee schedule on the following page for cases contracted out to private counsel. Litigation expenses (the cost of transcripts, investigation, experts, or depositions) are not included in these fees but are approved on a case-by-case basis. Such costs would be incurred by MSPD whether the case was being handled internally or by private counsel.

Given the assumptions set out, the cost of contracting out all Trial Division conflict cases to private counsel would run a little over $6.154 million. Since our Fiscal Year 2016 appropriation for this purpose is approximately $2.278 million, contracting out all conflict cases would require an additional $3.876 million, as shown in the tables on the following pages.

Caseload Relief - Constitutionally Mandated Representation
FUNDING FOR 258 ASSISTANT PUBLIC DEFENDERS & 86 SUPPORT STAFF (PART B)

Attorney Staff Needed to Handle Remaining Caseload: Removing all conflict cases helps to reduce the public defender case overload, but it does not eliminate it. Assuming that there is no increase in caseload, MSPD would still be 269.50 lawyers short of the number of attorneys needed according to the ABA report. This number is determined by applying RubinBrown’s average case weights to the number of cases for each case type assigned for Fiscal Year 2015. The number was calculated after conflicts have all been eliminated and contracted to private attorneys. Actual attorney travel time and court time were added to the RubinBrown metrics calculations, resulting in 1,287,590 attorney hours required. Assuming 2,080 available attorney hours each year—619.50 attorneys would be required to provide effective, constitutional representation. The current number of Trial and Appellate Division attorneys is 349.50, there are 11.50 attorneys requested in a separate Juvenile Advocacy decision item; leaving 258 attorneys to be requested.

Support Staff: Every law practice management expert will affirm that lawyer time needs to be leveraged by utilizing support staff for everything that can be done by a non-lawyer. This allows the lawyer to focus on tasks that only a lawyer can do. Therefore, MSPD is requesting 1 legal assistant for every 3 attorneys; that would mean 86 legal assistants in order to meet that ratio.

Attorneys and support staff would be allocated to the most over-worked offices based on several factors including but not limited to: the RubinBrown caseload weights, problematic counties to practice in, difficult prosecutors to negotiate with, office space available, etc. The calculations for the Trial Division office only include the juvenile cases where the public defender system is currently providing juvenile representation. Some local public defender offices do not provide representation for juveniles and in those instances the county is contracting with private attorneys to do so. A separate decision item is included in MSPD’s FY2017 Legislative Budget Request to set up juvenile advocacy offices in St. Louis Area and in Kansas City.

Some of the staffing requested in this decision item would be used to establish a Springfield Appellate/Post-Conviction office. (The caseload numbers for these appellate/pcr cases are included in the RubinBrown metrics and in the total number of attorneys needed for effective representation.) The Appellate/Post-conviction Division presents unique overload issues, which unlike Trial Division conflicts, are best addressed not through increased contracting to private counsel, but by the creation of an additional appellate/post-conviction office in Springfield, MO.

The attorneys in this division represent defendants who have already been convicted of a crime and are raising issues of error in the judicial process that led to their conviction. Post-conviction counsel must always review and raise, where appropriate, the issue of ineffective assistance of the client’s previous counsel. This means that the office that provides appellate representation for a client will always have a conflict handling that client’s post-conviction proceedings, which is why MSPD has six appellate/post-conviction offices, two each in St. Louis, Kansas City, and Columbia. Each duo of offices is able to handle conflict cases for one another, without (most) of those cases having to be shipped across the state to one of the other two appellate/post-conviction office locations.

However, travel is still a significant problem in this division because of the nature of post-conviction proceedings, which take place in the circuit court of conviction. This means MSPD has five offices covering post-conviction proceedings in 114 counties plus the City of St. Louis. (Only one of the offices in Columbia handles post-conviction matters, the other handles only appellate cases.) The map on the next page shows how the counties are currently divided among the existing offices. As the map indicates, the heavier concentration of cases in the two urban areas of St. Louis and Kansas City leave the attorneys in those areas unable to take on as many counties as their Central Missouri counterparts are required to cover. But even with fewer cases coming in from each of the outstate (grey) counties, MSPD’s Central PCR office is carrying a caseload at 300% of its attorney capacity. Add in the amount of travel involved and it becomes an equation that is simply not sustainable.

MSPD has attempted to reduce the travel burden on these offices by contracting out “remote-county PCR’s”, as they are known within the system, to local private counsel, but this approach has not been successful. Post-conviction practice is unique and very technical. Very few private attorneys have any experience, much less expertise, in these types of cases. MSPD’s attempts to contract these cases to private counsel have too frequently resulted in the cases having to be brought back in-system to correct significant, case-changing errors made by attorneys who are in over their heads. MSPD attempted to address this problem by offering training to private attorneys interested in taking these cases, but that, too, has proved insufficient to the task. Few accepted the opportunity and those who did, ended up taking these cases so infrequently that any benefit they may have received from the training has long since worn off by the time they get their next PCR.

Therefore, part of this decision will address the problem by adding an additional office in Springfield. Missouri’s appellate courts are located in St. Louis, Kansas City, and Springfield (with the Supreme Court in Jefferson City), so the new office would be conveniently located to the appellate court, while also reducing the travel time associated with a majority of the post-conviction cases in southwest Missouri. As expected, given the fact that Springfield is Missouri's third most populated city and Joplin is not far behind, the southwest region of the state accounts for a significant number of the post-conviction cases currently overloading the Central PCR office. Creating an additional appellate/pcr office in Springfield will siphon these cases off the Columbia office, provide better service to the clients and courts in Southwest Missouri while cutting back on travel costs and freeing up time for the Columbia Central PCR attorneys to better handle the workload in the remainder of Missouri's outstate counties.

3. WHY IS THIS FUNDING NEEDED? PROVIDE AN EXPLANATION FOR ITEMS CHECKED IN #2. INCLUDE THE FEDERAL OR STATE STATUTORY OR CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORIZATION FOR THIS PROGRAM.

Employee retention and recruitment is essential to the Missouri State Public Defender System's ability to meet its constitutional mandate to provide effective representation, especially in light of the fact that it is operating at less than one half the attorneys and one quarter the support staff needed for its caseload. Further, MSPD must be able to retain the employees it does have in order to avoid the backload that occurs to the existing high caseloads when attorneys move on to other jobs.

Without moving somewhat closer in salary parity to prosecuting attorneys, MSPD cannot recruit or retain employees. The resulting revolving door, as evidenced by our increasingly high turnover rate, which increased from 11.37 % in 2014 to 15.16%, makes it more likely that innocent persons will be incarcerated, that clients will languish in jail waiting until someone can get to their cases, and that non-violent offenders will be unnecessarily sent to prison, all at an extraordinarily high cost to Missouri's citizens, a much higher cost than what it would take to provide salary parity and greater retention for our employees. Every time an attorney leaves, his or her cases are reassigned and an already overloaded attorney adds the case to his or her existing backlog. With MSPD operating at one quarter the support staff needed, it also is critical that MSPD is able to retain the existing investigators, paralegals, legal assistants, mitigation specialists, and other clerical staff.

A comprehensive compensation structure, with some minor adjustments to existing salaries, will provide the needed promotion tracks to retain attorneys throughout their career.

In the Spring of 2013, the National Juvenile Defender Center issued an assessment of Missouri's system of juvenile indigent defense representation. The report was part of a national strategy to review state juvenile indigent defense delivery systems and to evaluate how effectively attorneys in juvenile court are fulfilling their constitutional and statutory obligations to their clients.

The study concluded that “Missouri’s indigent defense system is in crisis and has endured at least two decades of crushing caseloads and inadequate resources to provide its mandated services,” and little to no attention has been paid to what this crisis has meant to poor children accused of a criminal offense. Specifically, it found that:

“children facing criminal or status offenses in Missouri’s juvenile justice system frequently do so without the benefit of counsel or without adequate representation through all critical stages. There are significant gaps in both access to and quality of representation provided to youth that fall well below the standards established by the Institute of Judicial Administration and American Bar Association’s Juvenile Justice Standards, the ABA Rules of Professional Conduct, the Ten Core Principles for Juvenile Indigent Defense established by NJDC and NJDS’s newly release National Juvenile Defense Standards. Justice is often rationed to juveniles in Missouri for a variety of reasons, not the least of which is the crisis in the public defender system....”

4. DESCRIBE THE DETAILED ASSUMPTIONS USED TO DERIVE THE SPECIFIC REQUESTED AMOUNT. (How did you determine that the requested number of FTE were appropriate? From what source or standard did you derive the requested levels of funding? Were alternatives such as outsourcing or automation considered? If based on new legislation, does request tie to TAFP fiscal note? If not, explain why. Detail which portions of the request are one-times and how those amounts were calculated.)

Utilizing data provided from the Office of the State Court’s Administrator, there were 14,342 formal juvenile cases filed statewide in 2012 (the last year that OSCA has provided MSPD with numbers), of which 7,836 were abuse/neglect cases, leaving 6,506 juvenile cases where the juvenile was entitled to an attorney. Of the 6,506 juveniles, only 13% were actually represented by private counsel. That leaves 5,660 juvenile cases where the juvenile needed a public defender. However, in that same year, MSPD provided representation in just 1,923 juvenile cases.

As a result of this finding, the Missouri Juvenile Justice Association is seeking a rule or statutory change to prohibit the waiver of counsel by juveniles (this need has become even more so given the Department of Justice’s findings in its recent report on St. Louis County). In the meantime, they have asked MSPD to pursue the reinstatement of the two Juvenile Advocacy Units, one in the Kansas City area and one in the greater St. Louis area. (MSPD previously had these units, but had to relinquish them when trial division caseloads became too high and no additional personnel were forthcoming.)

These specialized units not only better serve juvenile clients, they also provide a resource and expertise for those providing juvenile representation throughout the state. This will become even more essential if waiver of counsel in these cases is eliminated and more public defenders and inexperienced private attorneys are appointed to provide juvenile defense representation.

MSPD is requesting juvenile attorney staffing at the recommended RubinBrown workload standards. MSPD is also seeking one additional attorney in each office to represent juveniles certified to stand trial as an adult and to serve as a statewide juvenile resource attorney to assist local offices across the rest of the state.

MSPD cannot improve or expand its network infrastructure, which is critically needed, without additional funding. MSPD's budget for its Wide Area Network [WAN] has remained unchanged for more than a decade, while its use of technological resources and electronic information has expanded at an amazing rate due in large part to e-filing requirements and the regular review of electronic evidence, such as body camera videos.

4. DESCRIBE THE DETAILED ASSUMPTIONS USED TO DERIVE THE SPECIFIC REQUESTED AMOUNT. (How did you determine that the requested number of FTE were appropriate? From what source or standard did you derive the requested levels of funding? Were alternatives such as outsourcing or automation considered? If based on new legislation, does request tie to TAFP fiscal note? If not, explain why. Detail which portions of the request are one-times and how those amounts were calculated.)

Distribution of Electronic Discovery and Critical Software Updates: The Missouri State Public Defender has partnered with many prosecutors around the state to receive discovery in digital form. However, distributing large digital discovery over the current MSPD network must be done outside of regular business hours to prevent disruption of other regular daily business. MSPD routinely receives e-discovery containing video and audio files which congest its system. Also completed outside of regular business hours is the deployment of critical files to protect computers and servers. All must be updated nightly with the latest anti-virus software and patches to the installed software programs. These processes are taking longer and longer to complete because of limited network speeds. Also, attorneys utilizing the networks to work late into the evening and in early morning hours severely limit the number of hours available for these crucial functions.

Other Resources pulling on MSPD's network include:

- Missouri Courts mandatory E-Filing
- Access to Department of Revenue for driving history and vehicle access
- Increased use of Web-based investigative tools
- Internet-based legal research tools
- Secretary of State's web-based archiving system
- Highway Patrol electronic criminal records
- Web-based training
- Video conferencing
- Electronic Lien submission to DOR and MO Lottery
- SAMII and BRASS
- Supreme Court oral arguments

Challenges to Information Technology Support: MSPD has a very small IT staff. As a result, they rely heavily upon remote access tools to view and control MSPD employee computers all around the state in order to solve problems and provide needed assistance -- avoiding the delay and cost involved in travel time to provide in-person IT assistance. Unfortunately, more and more frequently, MSPD attorneys and investigators are encountering challenges in playing the wide variety of surveillance and other digital evidence associated with their cases, but MSPD's network is not sufficient to allow IT to remotely assist employees with the operation of these very large electronic files. Internet access and current technology tools are only as fast as the slowest link -- that "last mile". The PD system has a total of 37 "last miles" -- one for each of its locations around the state. Faster network access is essential for the IT Department to get equipment fixed in a timely fashion and help employees get to back to work faster.

MSPD attorneys drive in excess of 2,000,000 miles per year and spend more than 25% of time worked outside of the office in court, visiting clients, interviewing witnesses, and investigating crime scenes. Therefore, MSPD employees need to work efficiently and effectively from anywhere and everywhere. Having commonly used applications available from mobile devices and mobile WiFi for laptops can assist in accomplishing these goals. However, there must an information technology infrastructure to support mobile applications as well as additional security systems and procedures to address the Bring Your Own Device (BYOD) environment.

Also, unlike Missouri's county-based prosecuting attorneys, MSPD does not have an office in each county courthouse with ready access to internet or WiFi. Instead, public defenders often spend significant portions of their time working in counties other than the one in which their office is located, and while they have laptops to assist them in this remote practice, the laptops are of limited use without internet service with which to access their electronic case files, Missouri's statutes, court rules and case law, as well as the court's own Casenet database. Approximately half of Missouri's county courts provide free WiFi access to "visiting" attorneys like Missouri's public defenders. The other half does not. This decision item, therefore includes the cost of providing mobile WiFi hotspots to fill this gap in essential internet access.

Along with an increase in mobility comes increased concerns and infrastructure needs for adequate cybersecurity and management of privately owned devices. This includes encryption software for all laptops and external media.

Due to the increased size of files, such as E-Discovery, E-mail, video evidence, video depositions, etc...additional secured storage is required. MSPD also needs to protect, manage and control confidential information, and identities. This can be accomplished with data loss prevention software.

2. CORE DESCRIPTION

As laws continue to change and staff continues to turnover, training of public defenders and their staff becomes even more critical. The funds in this appropriation are collected from the indigent accused and by statute are used at the discretion of the Director of the State Public Defender System for the operation of the department, including, but not limited to, training, Missouri Bar Dues, legal research, one-time equipment purchases and office moves.

3. PROGRAM LISTING (list programs included in this core funding)

REVENUE SOURCE: Monies collected from public defender clients.

FUND PURPOSE: Appropriation funds are largely used for training of public defenders and their staff. Funds are also used to supplement the cost of the operation of the State Public Defender System, by purchasing one-time equipment, paying for Missouri Bar dues, cost associated with information technology and other general operating costs.

2. CORE DESCRIPTION

This appropriation was established to cover three main types of expenses.

VIOLENT CRIMES: Payment of expenses associated with the defense of violent crimes, including those charged as sexually violent predators.

LITIGATION EXPENSES: Litigation expenses costing over $500 are paid out of the appropriation. These would include, but are not limited to, such things as independent analysis of DNA evidence, mental health evaluations by experts, depositions, interpreters, medical records, transcriptions, exhibits, immigration consultations, fingerprint experts, handwriting analysis, etc. There has been no increase in funding for litigation expense since fiscal year 1996.

CONFLICT CASES: A conflict requiring a case to be contracted out to private counsel occurs when there are multiple co-defendants charged in a particular incident. Should these co-defendants, each want to snitch on the other, an ethical problem is created and one defender office may not represent more than one co-defendant.

2. CORE DESCRIPTION

Beginning in FY1995, each department/agency participating in the Department of Revenue's Debt Offset Program, was required to establish an appropriation to receive money intercepted from individual Missouri State income tax refunds by the Department of Revenue on behalf of the department/agency. Recently, the Department of Revenue has also set up an intercept program from individual lottery winnings.

3. PROGRAM LISTING (list programs included in this core funding)

In FY2015, the Missouri State Public Defender intercepted $869,204 of individual Missouri State income tax refunds and $51,068 of lottery winnings from past public defender clients who have/had outstanding debts to the State Public Defender.

2. WHY IS THIS SUPPLEMENTAL FUNDING NEEDED? INCLUDE THE FEDERAL OR STATE STATUTORY OR CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORIZATION FOR THIS PROGRAM.

As stated in the program description, the issue of Missouri Public Defender's workload has been the subject of many different studies. MSPD's resources are too few and the caseloads are too high.

This proposal seeks funding that would allow MSPD to assign all Trial Division conflict cases to private attorneys, which remains the single most efficient way to immediately impact case overload.

3. DESCRIBE THE DETAILED ASSUMPTIONS USED TO DERIVE THE SPECIFIC REQUESTED AMOUNT. (How did you determine that the requested number of FTE were appropriate? From what source or standard did you derive the requested levels of funding? Were alternatives such as outsourcing or automation considered? If based on new legislation, does request tie to TAFP fiscal note? If not, explain why.

The FY2017 decision item requesting funding for constitutionally mandated representation, assumes several things. One of which is that all conflict cases are contract out to the private bar. Currently, when a case involves multiple defendants, there is always the risk that one will point a finger at the other. There, the local defender office can only provide representation to one co-defendant and any other co-defendants must be provided representation elsewhere, either by another defender office or by private counsel on a contract for representation. Historically, MSPD has sent the first co-defendant to another defender office and contracted out additional co-defendants to private counsel. However, this in-house handling of trial division conflict cases is not a cost-effective approach because it pulls lawyers out of their primary jurisdictions and requires them to drive significant distances to appear in court, conduct investigations, witness interviews and depositions, visit their clients in jail, all in a distant county. It is not uncommon for each trip to take a day of the attorney's time to deal with one or two cases. Instead, economies of scale suggest it is more cost-effective and efficient to contract all trial level conflict cases to local attorneys in the private bar and allow the defender offices to concentrate on effectively representing the cases that arise within the counties they are designated to serve.

At present, MSPD uses the fee schedule on the following page for cases contracted out to private counsel. Litigation expenses (the cost of transcripts, investigation, experts, or depositions) are not included in these fees but are approved on a case-by-case basis. Such costs would be incurred by MSPD whether the case was being handled internally or by private counsel.

Given the assumptions set out, the cost of contracting out all Trial Division conflict cases to private counsel would run a little over $6.154 million per year.. Since our Fiscal Year 2016 appropriation for this purpose is approximately $2.278 million, contracting out all conflict cases for a full fiscal year would require an additional $3.876 million, as shown in the tables on the following pages. This supplemental request is for $1,000,000, which would allow MSPD to begin sending all conflicts to private counsel effective April 1, 2016.
