SECRETARY OF STATE'S OFFICE

The major divisions within the Secretary of State's office are: Administrative Rules, Business Services, Elections, Fiscal and Facilities, Human Resources, Information Technology, Records Services, Securities, and State Library.

The Administrative Rules Division publishes proposed rules and emergency rules in the Missouri Register. An agency may file an emergency rule if the agency finds an immediate danger to the public health, safety or welfare requiring emergency action or if the emergency rule is necessary to preserve a compelling governmental interest that requires an early effective date. The Division also publishes final rules monthly in the Code of State Regulations.

The Business Services Division is comprised of four units: Notaries and Commissions, Corporations, Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) and Safe at Home. The Commissions unit commissions notaries public and certifies notaries for foreign documents, elected officials and the State Registrar of Vital Records. It also authenticates acts of the Governor and maintains bonds and oaths of office for state officials. The Corporations unit is responsible for registration of Missouri and out-of-state businesses doing business in the state, including for profit and nonprofit corporations and specialized businesses. The UCC unit perfects personal property liens and other creditor interests under the UCC. The division also registers trademarks and service marks and keeps a registry of all marks. The division oversees the Safe at Home address confidentiality program, which helps protect survivors of sexual assault, rape, stalking, human trafficking, domestic violence or other crimes by providing a substitute mailing address to use on new records they create with government agencies and the courts.

The Elections Division oversees all statewide elections, for both candidates and issues, which are run at the local level by Missouri's 116 local election authorities (county clerks or election boards). Missouri has more than four million registered voters, and in the 2020 November general election, over 3 million voters went to the polls. Candidates for the six constitutional state offices, U.S. Congress, the General Assembly, and circuit judges not covered by the non-partisan court plan, file for election with the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State also certifies statewide ballot measures that are proposed by the General Assembly or through the referendum or the initiative petition process. It is the responsibility of the office to canvass, certify and publish election results.

The Fiscal and Facilities Division provides fiscal, budget, procurement, facilities management support, and general office services to the Secretary of State's office.

The Human Resources Division provides human resource services and personnel needs to the Secretary of State's office.

The Information Technology Services Division is responsible for developing, maintaining, and monitoring the information systems within the Secretary of State's office to ensure information is functional, accessible, and secured for use by the Secretary of State's office, other state departments, counties and the general public. The division is continually implementing cybersecurity measures to maintain and advance overall information security within the Office.

The Records Services Division has three sections: Missouri State Archives, Local Records and Records Management. It is responsible for managing both current and historical records of the state to ensure those records are accessible to Missouri citizens. It is also responsible for assisting local governments in records preservation and management. The Records Services Division, in conjunction with the Missouri State Library, oversees MissouriDigitalHeritage.com, a statewide program to expand historical information accessible on the Internet.

The Securities Division is responsible for protecting Missouri investors from fraud and for ensuring that firms and individuals that sell securities comply with the securities laws in the state. The division enforces the Missouri Securities Act of 2003. The division is organized into three sections: investor education, enforcement, and registration. The Securities Division also oversees the Missouri Investor Protection Center, which creates and promotes investor education initiatives designed to educate and assist both current and future investors.

The Missouri State Library provides library and reference services to Missouri state government, provides library services to the blind and physically disabled, and promotes the development and improvement of library services for citizens throughout the state. The Library Development section supports libraries through consulting, administration of grant programs, continuing education and statewide programs to improve the quality of library service for all Missouri citizens. The Reference Services section delivers library services, including access to research databases, to meet the needs of state government. Wolfner Talking Book and Braille Library serves as the public library for Missourians unable to use standard print because of a visual or physical disability.

Library Development

The independent evaluator of Missouri's Library Services and Technology ACT (LSTA) FY2018-2022 Plan stated: "In the opinion of the evaluators, the Missouri State Library has, using the measure of leveraging a small amount of money to accomplish major results by strategically deploying funds, accomplished a great deal by very methodically and effectively carrying out the specific goals contained in its five-year LSTA Plan for 2018 – 2022. In the evaluators' considerable experience, few, if any, states have been as diligent in the implementation of their five-year plans. Furthermore, having worked with several dozen states on LSTA evaluations over the course of more than a decade, in our opinion, Missouri is exemplary in its management of a large and complex sub-grant program. The Missouri State Library has done what it said it would do in its five-year Plan and the state library agency's tracking of the outcome targets contained in the Plan is second to none."

1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

The Missouri State Archives is the official repository for state records of permanent and historical value. Its mission is to foster an appreciation of Missouri history by preserving and making available the state's records to its citizens and their government. The Records Management and Local Records Divisions assist government agencies in meeting these preservation and access goals.

1b. What does this program do?

The Records and Archives Division is comprised of the following three divisions:

Archives: The Missouri State Archives is the official repository for Missouri's records of permanent historical value. Among its holdings are land records from Missouri's colonial, territorial and early statehood periods; state constitutions; Session Laws; Journals of the Missouri House and Senate; Supreme Court of Missouri case files; State Appeals Court case files; historic military records; Circuit and Probate Court case files; and other records for Missouri counties. The Missouri State Archives identifies, collects, preserves and makes available to government officials, historians, students, genealogists and other researchers the historically significant records of Missouri.

Records Management: Records Management directs the efficient and effective management of state agency official records by: establishing standards, procedures, and techniques for the management of records; developing schedules for the retention of records of continuing value; prompt and orderly destruction of records no longer possessing sufficient value to warrant future retention; and operating the State Records Center to provide secure cost-effective storage of paper records during retention. The program also evaluates the cost efficiency of microfilm and electronic records technologies and provides imaging, microfilming and microfilm storage services to state and local agencies.

Local Records: Through consultations, inventories, records processing projects and a competitive grant program, Local Records works with public officials to preserve the permanent and historically significant records of their offices. In addition, the program provides professional guidance on managing current records; everything from proper housing and storage of records to final disposition through the implementation of Local Records generated retention schedules.

Books, magazines, and machines are mailed via USPS to and from library patrons at no charge to the user. Currently, over 8,500 print disabled Missourians are registered to use Wolfner Library services. The Wolfner Recording Studio produces recorded books with Missouri connections (author, theme, location) and makes them available for circulation or for download on BARD, making the Wolfner collection available to patrons nationwide. Recording is done by volunteers; the actual audio processing is done by Wolfner staff. Wolfner has recorded over 1,350 titles. Wolfner offers many programs for patrons to participate in. Those programs include summer reading for youth and adults, an adult winter reading challenge, book clubs, and webinars to introduce statewide services. Wolfner also offers book club kits, STEM kits, board games in braille and early literacy kits. Wolfner Library is nationally recognized as one the premier Talking Book and Braille Libraries.

Department	Secretary of State	AB Section(s):	12.100
Program Name	Federal Grants - Regrant Program
Program is found in the following core budget(s):	Record Services

1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

The Missouri Historical Records Advisory Board (MHRAB) uses their expertise to guide the state, its local governments and the Missouri public on records preservation, accessibility and management issues.

1b. What does this program do?

The MHRAB promotes and supports the identification and preservation of, as well as access to, the state's historical records. It is the central advisory body for historical records strategic planning projects carried out in Missouri. Members appraise grant proposals submitted to the National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC) and collectively review Local Records Grant Program applications.

2a. Provide an activity measure(s) for the program.

With NHPRC financial assistance, since 2014, the MHRAB has provided archival workshops for both professional and public audiences at venues across the state. Additional topics have included genealogy, records digitization, electronic records management, disaster preparedness, reference services and the recording of oral histories. At the end of FY24, total attendance stood at 1,290 for the 56 workshops offered since their introduction. Additionally, the eight modules of pre-recorded online photographic preservation workshops launched this year garnered 2,833 combined views for a total of 557.3 hours.

2b. Provide a measure(s) of the program's quality.

Workshop attendees typically return to attend other offerings, when available.

2c. Provide a measure(s) of the program's impact.

From 2014 through the end of FY24, the MHRAB has provided learning opportunities for 1,290 individuals from across the state, including the general public, and paid/volunteer staff from colleges/universities, historical societies, genealogical societies, local/state government, museums, and religious organizations.

2d. Provide a measure(s) of the program's efficiency.

Of the 1,315 total MHRAB workshop registrants, 1,290 actually attended, for an attendance rate of 98.1%.

6. Are there federal matching requirements? If yes, please explain.

Yes, NHPRC grants require a 50/50 recipient match.

7. Is this a federally mandated program? If yes, please explain.

No. The federal government encourages states to have State Historical Record Advisory Boards and provides grant funding to those states who have boards.

Program Name Local Records Preservation Grants

Program is found in the following core budget(s): Record Services

1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

Local Records Grants promote good records management practices and encourage local governments to actively address their recordkeeping.

1b. What does this program do?

Local Records Grants provide financial assistance and implementation guidance to local governments and political subdivisions with taxing authority for approved records management and/or preservation projects.

2a. Provide an activity measure(s) for the program.

The Local Records Grant Program has funded 1,196 grants. These include 504 grants to counties, 375 grants to cities, 291 grants to school districts, and an additional 28 grants were awarded to fire districts, water districts and other local government agencies.

2b. Provide a measure(s) of the program's quality.

See 2a and 2c.

2c. Provide a measure(s) of the program's impact.

The grant program provides funding, primarily, for reformatting records and improved storage. Through the program local government records are imaged and storage microfilm is created for preservation in the Records and Archives Division microfilm vault. This is a best practice for preservation and disaster preparedness. Through FY24, 23,763 rolls of microfilm have been produced through the grant program. These rolls contain approximately 35.6 million pages of local government records.

2d. Provide a measure(s) of the program's efficiency.

The grant program has returned 8.1 million dollars to local governments for self-directed records management and preservation projects over 29 grant cycles. The average grants of $6,828 allow grantees to undertake projects that in many cases would be cost prohibitive.

Program Name Document Preservation

Program is found in the following core budget(s): Record Services

1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

The Document Preservation Fund was created in 1996 to allow the Missouri State Archives to accept donations for the specific purpose of preserving and making available to the public documents of importance to the State of Missouri.

1b. What does this program do?

The State Document Preservation Fund consists of all moneys received by the Missouri State Archives from gifts, bequests, or contributions for the specific purpose of preserving legal, historical, and genealogical materials and making them available to the public. The Document Preservation Fund allows the Archives to seek assistance from the private sector to help save state government documents, which might otherwise be lost, destroyed, or inaccessible to the public. Various projects include grant administration, work on Missouri State Archives-St. Louis projects and other special projects that make records available to the public as described in RSMo 109.005.

2a. Provide an activity measure(s) for the program.

During FY08 and FY09, funds from the Document Preservation Fund were spent making death certificates more accessible online. The effectiveness of this expenditure can be seen in the decline in physical death certificate requests from 15,455 in 2006 to almost none from 2009 to the present. More recent preservation and access projects include records for the Missouri Supreme Court, Union Veterans Home, early Land Sales, and the photographic prints of Missouri's first state photographer, Gerald R. Massie (1911-1989).

2b. Provide a measure(s) of the program's quality.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Department Secretary of State

AB Section(s): 12.115

Program Name State Aid for Public Libraries

Program is found in the following core budget(s): Library Services

1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

State Aid for Public Libraries makes a vital contribution to improving public library services for Missourians. The program provides funds to public libraries that meet the requirements specified in the Missouri Constitution, Article IX, Section 10 and in RSMo 181.060. Public libraries having a minimum voted tax of local government support equal to ten cents per $100 of assessed valuation are eligible to receive funds from this program. The average tax rate is set at $.2066.

1b. What does this program do?

While public libraries in Missouri are funded primarily through property taxes, this program provides funds that help bridge local variations in funding due to differences in local property valuations and voted tax rates. In large cities and small towns alike, libraries serve as community anchors and provide baseline access to government services, economic opportunity, and support for students. In many communities, public libraries provide the only no cost high speed internet access, heavily used by people seeking jobs, filling out application forms, researching business opportunities, participating in online classes, or filing their taxes. For children, public libraries support early learning and education through storytimes, summer reading programs, and help with homework. State aid funds are used for computer technology or other equipment, Internet connectivity, print and digital resources, and library staff.

State aid applications are submitted annually for review and certification by the State Librarian. Once approved, local library boards of trustees decide how to allocate these funds according to the highest local needs and priorities. The Secretary of State and the State Library provide service guidance to public libraries through professional development opportunities, consultation services and other resources. State aid funding provides modest support for libraries moving to meet standard service and programming benchmarks.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Department Secretary of State

AB Section(s): 12.120

Program Name Remote Electronic Access for Libraries Program (REAL)

Program is found in the following core budget(s): Library Services

1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

To provide Missourians with expanded services for learning and equity of access to quality library resources, services and technology to support individuals' needs for education, lifelong learning, and digital literacy skills.

1b. What does this program do?

The REAL Program provides internet access, network security, training, technical support, and peripheral services for public libraries, as well as licensing of shared electronic reference resources available to Missouri's participating public libraries, K-12 schools, higher education institutions and state agencies.

Public libraries serve as the sole source of high-speed internet access for many Missourians, especially in our rural communities. In order for Missourians to compete in an online environment for jobs and business revenue, they need a basic level of computer skills and access to internet resources. Using local library's high-speed internet access, patrons access government forms, apply for jobs and receive essential online training courses. As schools continue to increase their use of electronic resources in their curricula, public libraries often provide the only means for students to complete research and online assignments outside school hours, particularly for those who have no internet-enabled device or lack reliable or affordable internet access at home.

Beginning in March 2020 and continuing after the pandemic, public libraries have served an even more essential role, enabling access to Wi-Fi network connectivity outside their buildings (into the parking lot), providing hot spot device checkout to enable internet connectivity in homes and other remote locations and Wi-Fi enabled devices for patron and community use, all in support of the immediate and ongoing shift to remote learning, working and health care.

To meet the ongoing demand for internet access to serve their local communities, the three-year average bandwidth growth across all REAL Program participating library connections is nearly 21%. The Federal Communication Commission's benchmark for high-speed broadband is 100 megabits per second (Mbps) download and 20 megabits per second (Mbps) upload. As of July 31, 2024, forty-three REAL participating library connections meet the recommendation for 100 Mbps.

The REAL Program appropriation includes funding for several types of database services including a general periodicals database, downloadable ebooks, K-12 research resources, genealogical and historical sources, as well as resources for health, business, and other popular research topics. These services are heavily used by all types of libraries and are also available to state agencies. Without this program, individually most public libraries and schools would be unable to afford access to electronic information resources. Those that are able to afford access would individually pay a considerably higher per capita cost for these resources, thus wasting scarce taxpayer dollars.

The Missouri Research and Education Network (MOREnet) offers essential technical services and maintains a high-capacity, high-speed statewide telecommunications network in the State of Missouri. The Remote Electronic Access for Libraries (REAL) Program is one of the contractual programs for MOREnet.

The data shown below is averaged across all public library participants, types of assistance and areas of performance. Since FY14, 97% of respondents report they are satisfied with the service received from the help desk.

Electronic Resource Usage:

The electronic resources provided by the REAL Program provide important reference information to residents throughout the state. Not only are these services heavily used by public libraries and the people they serve, these resources are essential to K-12 and higher education libraries and classrooms and the students they serve. Without these shared resources, most public libraries and schools will not be able to afford access to electronic information resources, and the few able to afford to pay for individual access would pay more in total.

*Note changes in the way the vendor tracks usage statistics and the way member organizations configure their library automation systems and discovery services can dramatically impact how searches are counted.

Demand Growth and Cost Efficiency: Capacity and Cost per Megabit (Mbps):

The demand for internet connectivity at public libraries continues to grow. Additional workstations, wireless devices, and greater use of electronic resources and communications by library patrons and staff continue to push demands for capacity higher and higher. By leveraging collective purchasing power, per Mb costs are lower than if each library district were to negotiate individually. In addition, the continual pursuit of additional connectivity savings has allowed REAL to meet the ongoing demand for increased bandwidth capacity with existing resources.

Program Name	Federal Aid for Public Libraries
Program is found in the following core budget(s):	Library Services

AB Section(s): 12.125

1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

The purpose of the Library Services and Technology Act Fund (LSTA) is to promote literacy, education and lifelong learning and to enhance and expand the services and resources provided by libraries, including those services and resources relating to workforce development, 21st century skills and digital literacy skills.

1b. What does this program do?

The Missouri State Library is the State Library Administrative Agency for LSTA funds awarded annually to Missouri. Based on needs identified by Missouri libraries and a formal evaluation of the 2023-2027 State Five Year Plan, approved by the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS), the federal agency which administers the LSTA funds, the Missouri State Library developed a Five Year Plan for 2023-2027. As required, the Plan was reviewed and approved by IMLS.

To implement the 2023-2027 Five Year Plan, the Missouri State Library developed programs to:

1. Build and sustain information resources
2. Target library and information services
3. Strengthen the library workforce

2a. Provide an activity measure(s) for the program.

2b. Provide a measure(s) of the program's quality.

Library staff consistently give high ratings to training provided by the Missouri State Library. Survey results from the annual continuing education survey show that CE training events are perceived by most participants as being an effective tool for increasing understanding of new library practices and procedures. Furthermore, most participants report sharing information with other staff and applying what they have learned to programming and services. Online training and webinars sponsored by the Missouri State Library have remained popular as many library professionals indicate that they prefer a virtual format post-pandemic.

2c. Provide a measure(s) of the program's impact.

The Missouri State Library has continued to be responsive to libraries needs as the return to more normal post-pandemic operations. While LSTA grants still are focused heavily on early literacy/summer reading program and technology, some libraries have incorporated some of their COVID-related services to become "normal" library offerings, such as checking out of wifi hotspots and making self-checkout machines available. The Missouri State Library will continue to monitor trends and needs and offer grant opportunities to meet this needs, when possible.

2d. Provide a measure(s) of the program's efficiency.

The independent evaluator of Missouri's LSTA 5 year Plan stated: "In the opinion of the evaluators, the Missouri State Library has, using the measure of leveraging a small amount of money to accomplish major results by strategically deploying funds, accomplished a great deal by very methodically and effectively carrying out the specific goals contained in its five-year LSTA Plan for 2023-2027. In the evaluators' considerable experience, few, if any, states have been as diligent in the implementation of their five-year plans. Furthermore, having worked with several dozen states on LSTA evaluations over the course of more than a decade, in our opinion, Missouri is exemplary in its management of a large and complex sub-grant program. The Missouri State Library has done what it said it would do in its five-year Plan and the state library agency's tracking of the outcome targets contained in the Plan is second to none."

This program provides funds to Missouri public libraries and is to be used to purchase materials for the library collections. The materials purchased can be for adult, teens and children and can be in print, audio, visual or electronic format.

1b. What does this program do?

State statute (143.183 RSMo) requires the transfer of ten percent of the estimated revenues generated by the professional athletes and entertainers, state income tax revenues from nonresidents to the Library Networking Fund for distribution to public libraries for purchase of library materials, adding to the funding used to meet Missourians' need for accurate and reliable information from libraries. In addition to this transfer, monies received from gifts, contributions, grants or bequests from federal, private or other sources may also be deposited to the Library Networking Fund (RSMo182.812) and used according to the purposes of the gift or grant. Special reporting categories are put in place to track all expenditures. Interest accrued to the Library Networking Fund may also be spent for the purposes of the fund.

In fields where information changes rapidly, such as health, sciences, business, and consumer information, new items must be purchased regularly to avoid incorrect and sometimes harmful information. Families need interesting, well-written, attractive materials to develop children’s interest in reading and learning, whether or not they can afford to purchase them. Reading aloud to young children has been found to be a major factor in school readiness and later reading achievement. Students and adults find accurate, reliable information at their local libraries.
