

Flip the Switch

Did you know more than 10% of energy used in an average home goes toward lighting?

That number jumps to 20% in commercial buildings. One of the simplest ways to save energy can be found at the flip of a light switch.

Turn the lights off when you leave a room.

For more information, visit oa.mo.gov/fmdc/bit

Another B.I.T. of energy saving information from

Brought to you by the Division of Energy and the Office of Administration