MOLogin account creation for consolidated agencies

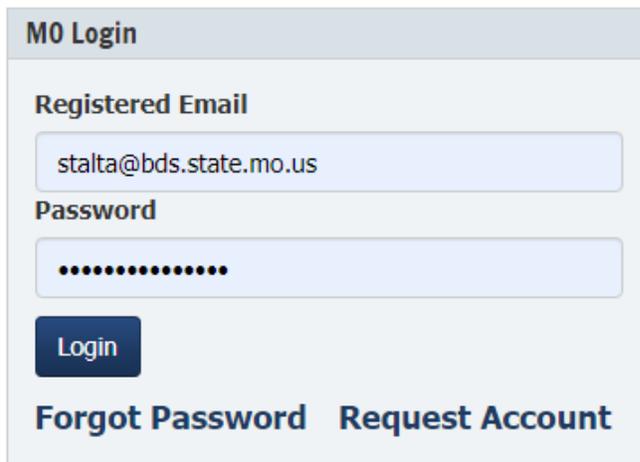

If you work for a consolidated IT agency, you do not need to register a new account with MOLogin. Sign in with your credentials that you use to sign into your computer in this format:

userid@domain.state.mo.us (your userid is your Active Directory/Windows ID that you use to sign on to your computer and your domain is ADS, BDS, or CDS).

Your password will be the same as your Windows password.

For example:

Login

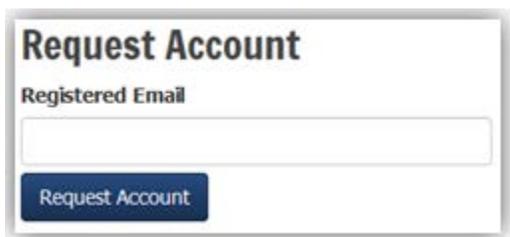

The image shows a screenshot of the MO Login web form. The form has a light blue header with the text "MO Login". Below the header, there are two input fields: "Registered Email" containing the text "stalta@bds.state.mo.us" and "Password" containing a series of dots. Below the password field is a dark blue "Login" button. At the bottom of the form, there are two links: "Forgot Password" and "Request Account".

MOLogin account creation for non-consolidated agencies

Users that do not have ADS/BDS/CDS accounts will need to Register/Request a MOLogin account.

Register / Request Account MOLogin Account

1. The user must request an account using this link: <https://moaccount.mo.gov/Account/RegisterRequest>

The screenshot shows a web form titled "Request Account". Below the title is a label "Registered Email" followed by a text input field. Below the input field is a dark blue button with the text "Request Account".

2. Next, the user fills in their email address and clicks the Request Account button below.
