1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

Success-Ready Students & Workplace Development

1b. What does this program do?

The purpose of the 21st Century Community Learning Center (CCLC) program is to create centers during non-school hours that provide students (in high-poverty areas and low-performing schools) with academic, artistic and cultural enrichment opportunities designed to complement their regular academic program to help meet state and local student performance standards in core academic subjects of at least, but not limited to, reading/language arts and mathematics. The funding would assist youth in improving their academic achievement and individual development.

Centers also offer families of students served opportunities for literacy and related educational development. Regular student participation in afterschool programs can contribute to academic progress.

2a. Provide an activity measure(s) for the program.
