1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

Affordability, Access and Success

1b. What does this program do?

State appropriations are allocated to each of Missouri's 12 public community college districts according to a distribution model agreed upon by the colleges and the Missouri Department of Higher Education and Workforce Development. State appropriations support community colleges in their mission to provide increased educational attainment, to increase the availability of skilled workers, and prepare students for transfer to four-year institutions. Community colleges award certificates and associate degrees as well as non-credit workforce training credentials, and are generally open admission, although certain programs may have additional pre-requisites. Beginning in 2021-2022, some community colleges began offering baccalaureate level programs in some subject areas as approved by the CBHE.

2a. Provide an activity measure(s) for the program.

Total full-time equivalent enrollment at Missouri community colleges.

Data from EMSAS

A decline has been occurring over the last decade due to Post-Great Recession and Missouri high school graduates has been declining in recent years.
