1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

Improving Workforce; Reducing Risk and Recidivism

1b. What does this program do?

The Director of the Division of Probation and Parole is responsible for overseeing the operations of the Division of Probation and Parole and provides administrative support to the Missouri Parole Board.

- The division is responsible for supervising offenders who have been sentenced to probation by the courts or released from incarceration to parole or conditional release by the Parole Board, and those sex offenders who have been discharged from active supervision but who remain on lifetime supervision.
- Probation and Parole administration helps to reduce recidivism and improve the workforce by overseeing a variety of programs aimed at helping offenders transition to supervision in the community.
- This program includes funding of $470,361 for GPS-based electronic monitoring for lifetime supervision of certain sex offenders.
- As of June 30, 2022, there were over 53,000 offenders under supervision.
- The division operates over 70 district, satellite and sub-offices; 19 institutional parole offices; two transition centers; and six community supervision centers.
- The division manages a variety of contracted community supervision programs including electronic monitoring, residential facilities, and automation services.
