1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

Economic independence for Missourians and moving families to economic sustainability

1b. What does this program do?

The Department of Social Services (DSS), Family Support Division (FSD) administers the Total Man Program to provide services to fathers to help support their children emotionally and financially by providing access to programs that deliver responsible parenting, healthy marriage, economic stability, and job training skills. The Fatherhood program seeks to enroll fathers who have a desire to enhance parenting skills and improve co-parenting relationships; to connect participants to resources that support education, employment/career development, family/child support (CS), health, housing, legal services, mediation/access/visitation, and economic stability.

Total Man also provides trained facilitators to teach the Future Leaders Program curriculum aimed at increasing teen's understanding of the financial, legal and emotional responsibilities of adulthood to 7th and 8th grade students in Missouri schools.
