1a. What strategic priority does this program address?

Build and engage community resources to support families in need

1b. What does this program do?

The Department of Social Services contracts with Area Resources for Community and Human Services (ARCHS) to administer Operation Restart (Youth Build Works) to help under-served youth, ages 16 to 24, or 25 or older with a minor child. Youth will obtain high school equivalency, life skills, and gainful employment. The targeted industries include construction, health care, and agriculture. The goal is to assist participants to qualify for and retain employment in high-growth, high-demand industries or pursue advanced education in middle-skilled jobs that are currently available in the job market. These jobs require education beyond high school, but not a 4-year college degree.
