HB Section(s): 6.090

Program: Grain Inspection Services

Program is found in the following core budget(s): Grain Inspection Services

7. Is this a federally mandated program? If yes, please explain.

- No. USDA is responsible for administering the U.S. Grain Standards Act and the U.S. Agricultural Marketing Act.
- In accordance with these acts, USDA designates or delegates those responsibilities to state departments of agricultural or private grain inspection agencies.
- USDA provides compliance and operational oversight of the official grain inspection system and the Specialty Crop Cooperative Agreement.
- Each official grain inspection agency must apply to USDA for re-designation every five years. Missouri's designation period began September 1, 2017 and runs through August 31, 2022.
- The Specialty Crop Cooperative Agreement is in effect unless terminated by either party. The agreement will be reviewed every 5 years.
