

Single Feasible Source Purchase

Title: Mobile Medical Hospital

Description: To maintain and enhance the fifty-bed Mobile Medical Unit that could be utilized to respond to disasters and other public health emergencies. To prepare hospitals and other healthcare systems to prevent, respond to, and rapidly recover from the threat of mass casualty incidents or Medical Surge, which is critical for protecting and securing Missouri's and the Nation's healthcare system and public health infrastructure.

Taney County Ambulance District was the subrecipient of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security funding to purchase the mobile hospital. Therefore, Taney County Ambulance District is the only entity in Missouri that can provide the services.
