

Department Description

Office of the Adjutant General

The Adjutant General is the military chief of staff to the Governor and the administrative head of the military establishment of the state. The Adjutant General provides command and control to nearly 12,000 National Guard personnel including the Missouri Army National Guard, Missouri Air National Guard, and the Office of Air Search and Rescue.